

MEDIUM Art Gallery Grand Opening
July 2nd, 2021 5-8 pm.
522 E. Perkins Street, Ukiah (Pear Tree Center)

The community is invited to join us at MEDIUM Art Gallery to celebrate the works of local artists at our first in-person exhibition.

We are excited to share a range of artwork with the public and other artists. After receiving an incredible amount of submissions in various styles, our group show Prologue will debut on July 2nd.

About the exhibition:

We asked artists to tell us their stories, introduce themselves and their art, and submit pieces representing their style. We are pleased to showcase these pieces from a wide range of artists from around the county at our new exhibition space at the Pear Tree Center in Ukiah.

Prologue and features works of art by Alex Fell, Allison Tuomala, Kindra Carter, Charlotte Tefft, Sarah Ann Falk, Chris Pugh, Curtis Clark, Damien and Lillian Rubie, Daniel Graham, Denver Tuttle, E.D., Esther Siegel, Fernando Avalos, James D. Kester, Janet Rosen, Janet Self, Jeff Goll, Jim McKell, Joan Bosrock, Kirsten Gantzel, Laura Fogg, Linda Malone, Louann Talbert, Maizie Avery, Melody King Ulrich, Olivia Consterdine, Page Fender, Paps, Phyllee Binder Lockhart, Polly Palecek, Rose Morse, Spencer Brewer, Steven Levin, Susanna Bosrock, and Tim Hemlock.

About us:

The Deep Valley Arts Collective sprang from a group of creative artists determined to share their gifts with the world and bring beauty and connection to the place they call home. Through determination, hard work, and hope, the Collective set out to found a location to showcase the diverse array of artists from around the county.

The Deep Valley Arts Collective is a Mendocino County-based 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that believes in the transformative power of making and experiencing art. Our mission is to create a culture that nurtures artists' development and success while contributing to the well-being of our community.
